

TITRE DE LA LEÇON : ASKING FOR AND GIVING ADVICE

Discipline : Anglais

Sous-discipline : Communication

Cycle : Lycée - Niveau : Terminale C et D

An advice is an opinion that someone gives to another on how to act or behave in front of a situation.

1-Asking for advice

To ask for an advice, you must first present your problem and then say:

- What do you advise me to do?
- What do you suggest?
- What should I do?
- What advice can you give me?

Examples:

- I have a headache. What do you advise me to do?
- My girlfriend is pregnant. What should I do?

2-Giving advice

To give some advice to someone, we say:

- I advise you to ...
- I would advise you to ...
- You should ...
- You had better ... / You'd better ...
- If I were you I would ... / If I were you I'd ...
- Why don't you ...?

Example:

- I advise you to go to hospital.
- You should see her parents.

Practice 1

- I'm very tired. What should I do?
- You should have a rest.
- My son is stubborn. What do you advise me to do?
- I advise you to talk with him frankly.
- My wife is unfaithful. What advice can you give me?
- You'd better put her out.

Exercise one: Choose the correct words to complete the dialogues.

Dialogue 1

- A: You look a little pale. What's wrong with you?
B: I've a sore throat. What should I (do/to do)?

B: If I were you, I'd (talk/talking) to Aunt Suzanne. Perhaps she'll take you to hospital.

Dialogue 2

A: Excuse me, Mr. Mout. I've a headache. What do you advise me (doing/to do)?

B: You'd better (going/go) home and have a rest.

Dialogue 3

A: Excuse me, dad. I feel tired. I can't sleep.

B: Why don't you (practising/practise) sport?

A: I have jogged for the whole evening, but it doesn't work. What do you suggest?

B: You should (see/seeing) a doctor.

Practice 2

Practice the dialogues in exercise 1 with a partner.

Exercise two: Read the three dialogues in exercise 1 and complete the chart.

Problem	Advice
1-.....	.....
2-.....	.....
